

It's a tough subject.

A Live Documentary Play

Experience the true stories behind Pennsylvania's epic public school funding crisis, and its human impact on students, parents, educators and communities statewide. A funny/sad/unsettling play, created by three award-winning theatre artists from over 100 interviews with citizens all across the Commonwealth.

Performance FREE: Donations Gratefully Accepted

School Play explores our attitudes toward public education using the real voices of Pennsylvanians from across the Commonwealth.

An original live theatre play co-created by Arden Kass, Seth Bauer and Edward Sobel in collaboration with Public Citizens for Children & Youth.

School Play's Statewide Tour includes these PA Counties:

Elkins Park - October 2nd @ 8pm @ The White Pines Place

Montgomery County - October 3rd @ 7pm @ Montgomery County
Community College Blackbox Theatre

Berks County - October 5th @ 7pm @ Reading High School Auditorium

Dauphin County - October 6th @ 5:30 @ State Capitol Building in the Caucus Room

Lancaster County - October 7th @ 7pm @ McCaskey East High School

Centre County - October 8th @ 7pm @ State College Area High School

Cambria County - October 10th @ 7pm @ Greater Johnstown
High School

Delaware County - October 11th @ 7pm @ Wolf Performing Arts Center in Bryn Mawr

Lehigh County - October 12th @ 7pm @ Civic Theatre in Allentown

Elk County - October 13th @ 7pm @ St. Mary's High School

Erie County - October 14th @ 7pm @ Iroquois High School

Schuylkill County - October 15th @ 7pm @ Schuylkill Haven High School

For ticket information: visit www.pccy.org/schoolplay