Join the Team of Guides

PCCY is hosting a gaming event on Saturday, October 6, 2018 for of children from across the Greater Philadelphia region. Guides greet children and families as they register for the event an orient them to the schedule of the day, the “lay of the land” and escort children to their gaming session. Guides are the lifeline of this event, able to tell families where the restroom facilities are located, where and when food and beverages are available and what activities are taking place. Guides will be the “go to” contact for participants with key information to help navigate the many events throughout the day. If you like children, like to meet new people, and would enjoy guiding groups across a small college campus, this is an ideal volunteer opportunity.
