PCCY is hosting a gaming event on Saturday, October 6, 2018 for children from across the Greater Philadelphia region. Be the first person to welcome children and families to STEMCraft as member of a fast-paced and friendly check-in process that scans tickets, assigns room numbers and registers walk-in participants.

The Registration Team is a good fit if you are familiar with a computer keyboard or a smart phone and are eager to welcome hundreds of children and their parents who are looking forward to a day of gaming and fun. Volunteers on this team need patience and, in spite of lots of excitement, must not be easily flustered.
