Vital Statistics for Children in District 4

Citywide rankings for District 4 #3
in children with lead poisoning after screening

The children in District 4 need the tools and resources to achieve and be healthy.

In the FY 2025 Philadelphia must: 1. Increase city funding for the School District by $$ 100 \mathrm{M}$ 2.Expand the number of children PHLpreK serves by 250. 3. Give children after-school enrichment options by preserving after-school services for 8,000 children served currently by the School District, investing $$ 8.8 \mathrm{M}$ for youth programming at recreation centers, and continue $$ 2 \mathrm{M}$ for Philly Youth Sports Fund that serves 5,000 more youth. 4.Make neighborhoods safer by redirecting the $$ 4 \mathrm{M}$ in cost savings associated with reduced juvenile justice spending to diversion programs.

How are the students doing in District 4?

7,761
Children attending public or charter schools

91.5\%

Students peacefully attending school
34\%
Children enrolled in high-quality pre-k
14.2\%

Students passing the Math PSSA
34.4\%

Students passing the English/Language Arts PSSA
30.1\%

Students with stellar school attendance (>95\%)

Who are the children growing up in District 4?

Are children in District 4 healthy?
96.2\%

Children with health insurance (citywide data)
76.0\%

Children fully immunized (citywide data)
9.9\%

Children with lead poisoning

What's keeping the children down in District 4?

Families receiving SNAP benefits

Families paying too much rent

Number of shooting victims under 19 years old

Number of teacher and support staff vacancies at school

